LIFE HAPPENS

UNIQUE LIVING SPACES

Nowhere is individual personality reflected more strongly than in the home. This is where there are no rules and no conformity. This is where the only things that matter are passion, freedom and you yourself. Unique ideas for home living are key to creating your own world and, in this way, to giving your home personality.

At the same time, we can witness a return to furnishing ideas from years gone by. In terms of living-room furniture, it is lowboards, sideboards and highboards that are dominating the trend. Now as ever, quality is the be all and end all. In the timbers used, yet also in the modern finishes given. High-quality glass doors and handleless fronts attractively carry past classics into the here and now.

Made with passion and labelled 'Made in Germany', hallmark both mean we can guarantee a high-quality, versatile and unique line-up for a home brimming with style and vitality.

Sideboards

WHAT ONCE PLAYED A SUPPORTING ROLE IS NOW A DESIGN STATEMENT THAT CAN DEFINE A SPACE YET ALSO REMAIN LOW KEY.

Every day, life writes new stories that shouldn't be forgotten. Providing copious storage space, sideboards make a place for mementoes without denying the home calm and neatly kept order. Featuring open compartments and decorative standing surface, they instead create places to treasure unique reminders in the way they deserve.

Highboards offer generous storage space and a perfect stage for decorative accents. But above all, they are a stylish statement. With refined elegance, they blend discreetly into the interior without explicitly demanding attention. But thanks to their powerful appearance and timeless charm, they are the silent protagonists of any room.

Open compartments, closed fronts, with distinctive handles, handleless or illuminated in any preferred way. Highboards offer numerous ways of perfectly matching their surroundings and creating a lasting 'wow' effect.

DRESSING ROOM

STRUCTURE AND ORDER TO ENRICH LIFE.

A dressing room can be so much more than just a wardrobe. This is where the day begins, where we are alone with our reflection and decide who we are, how we feel and how we want to face the world. Modern dressing-room solutions give us the ideal feel-good space for reinventing ourselves every day.

Help making decisions for every day.

Structuring everyday life brings clarity of mind. Different interior features provide the perfect way to create neat and tidy order without any complication. Drawers and pull-outs keep garments neatly organised, help to look after them and make them easy to find. This means the right combination is always to hand whatever the occasion. And if it's ever to be a relaxed day at home, business attire stylishly disappears behind distinctive fronts.

SYSTEMATIC FEEL-GOOD FACTOR

Clothing expresses our personal taste. It shows who we are and what we do. Carefully considered systems help us to keep a clear picture of things and make the right choice every time.

STRUCTURED ELEGANCE

The perfect way to present your favourite shoes, whatever their size. The anti-slip profile keeps them reliably in place.

Tops stay crease-free on the garment rail and are particularly easy to reach using the optional lift system.

Your trousers are clearly and comfortably accessible. This trouser holder is also available as a side-mounted version.

In various lengths, beautiful wooden inserts bring clearly structured, stylish organisation to drawers.

Unobtrusively positioned on the side panel, solutions utilise available space for the small yet gratifying things in life.

DIVERSITY FOR COLOURS

FEELING. SEEING.
UNDERSTANDING.
